

Binary phenotypes are shown on the liability scale; BMI is shown on its native quantitative scale. Panel C reports cross-fold SD as a descriptive stability measure for all methods, including LDpred2. Estimator-specific SE and 95% CI, where available, and complete observed- and liability-scale binary results are reported in Supplementary Table S1.