

Cross-fold SD is a descriptive stability measure across the overlapping training partitions and is not an inferential standard error. Simulated binary traits are shown on the liability scale and simulated continuous traits on their native quantitative scale.